

Delivering Responsible Pet Ownership Education in Schools

Gain skills on how to interact and engage with students of all ages with regards to pet ownership.

Synopsis

This course is intended to provide learners (e.g. animal welfare officers, pick-up officers/rangers, local laws officers or any local government officer whose role includes educating primary school students on responsible pet ownership.

Participants will gain skills in how to interact and engage with students of all ages with regards to responsible pet ownership.

This program is linked to the national curriculum and gives attendees skills on how to interact with and engage students of ages effectively.

Course Topics

- Design a lesson template for your Council
- How to deliver an interactive school based lesson
- Dog Safety
- Responsible pet ownership
- Classroom and teacher expectations
- Learn tips on how to engage students of all ages
- How to increase audience participation

Participants will receive lesson plans and other resources useful to their role as Education Officers.

Course Details

Delivery: Inhouse or Virtual delivery

Structure: Interactive Workshop

Time: 6 hours

Class Size: Max 15

Cost: On request

About the Trainer

With a total of 30 years' experience within the animal industry, including 10 years in Animal Management with local government, Louise Hainey brings an understanding of animal related issues in local government to her role as a trainer within the Peak Services team. She successfully delivers many programs including Authorised Persons, Animal Management (Cats and Dogs) Act 2008, Breed Identification and many others.