

Mate to Manager

How to successfully move from being a mate to managing your mates.

Synopsis

This short course explores the challenges and opportunities you'll face as you navigate the transition from contributing team member to team manager/leader.

With a focus on changing perspectives and adapting to your new role, you'll explore strategies for crafting new relationships with your team, your peers and your manager.

This program will assist you to recognise the importance of building self-awareness in your new position.

Course Topics:

- Change your mindset from team member to team manager
- Transition to your new role and develop broader business perspectives
- Redefine and refine relationships with your workplace mates
- Develop self-awareness and explore your identity as a leader Manage your own workload while effectively meeting the needs and expectations of your team and colleagues

Our course covers how to make the transition, getting to know your team (again), boundaries, resisters, self-awareness, trust and respect, identify development needs, manage yourself, manage up, engage your team and create alliances.

Our trainers

Our specialist facilitators bring years of Local Government training experience to guiding and inspiring participants, helping them build confidence and capability across a wide range of disciplines. Join us for this lively, instructor-led, interactive, and practical course designed to enhance skills and support participants in navigating real-world challenges.

Peak Services is a pre-qualified supplier on Local Buy Arrangement:
Training Services LB327

Audience

- Supervisors
- Managers
- Senior Leaders
- Team leaders

Workshop details

Delivery: In-house or virtual.

Duration: 1 day interactive workshop.

Class size: Max 15.

Price: On request.