

eLearning: Fraud Awareness for Local Government

Raise your officers' awareness and responsibilities of fraud and corruption.

Synopsis

Peak's Fraud Awareness for Local Government eLearning program will provide Council officers with an improved understanding of their responsibilities if they witness fraudulent or corrupt activities.

This program will guide participants through types of fraud and fraud behaviours; actions to take; legislation and how to report these activities.

Topics Include:

Identify and manage fraud risks

- Fraud management processes and procedures
- How to identify and analyse fraud risks
- Reporting of fraud
- Personal implications – fraud conviction
- Fraud Risk – perpetrator profile

What is Fraud?

- Types of Fraud
- Example fraud behaviours
- Fraud vs corruption – indicators • Fraud behaviour – the Fraud Diamond

Fraud and Corruption Control Plan

- Legal framework, ethical culture
- Control strategies, action by council
- Reporting and legislation

Our trainers

Our specialist facilitators bring years of Local Government training experience to guiding and inspiring participants, helping them build confidence and capability across a wide range of disciplines. Join us for this lively, instructor-led, interactive, and practical course designed to enhance skills and support participants in navigating real-world challenges.

Audience

Our courses are specifically designed for Queensland Local Government officers, delivered by experienced facilitators and enriched with practical local government content. Each program has been developed to suit the needs and priorities of your council, ensuring relevance and impact for your chosen audience.

Workshop details

Delivery: eLearning program

Duration: 45 minutes interactive workshop.

Class size: On request

Price: Please contact Peak Services for course fees or a proposal for on-site or in-house training.